I would be an excellent fit for your Graphic Designer position at your company I have over 20 years of experience in Art Direction and Graphic Design in corporate, marketing, retail, non-profit, and many other diverse businesses, large and small. I am highly proficient in print, web, and social design.

Among my colleagues, I have become the go-to resource for leadership and creative problem-solving. I would love to leverage these skills while serving as your next graphic designer.

Here is a brief list of what I bring to the table:

- Web, & Print Advertising/Marketing — design and deliver creative and innovative solutions that drive new sources of sustainable revenue.
- Client Relations —fosters positive relationships with new and existing clients, rooted in transparent communication, trust, and mutual respect.
- Technical Design Skills — deploy the use of Adobe Creative Suite and others to design and launch creative outputs for clients.

My intentions for reaching out to your company are simple: I want to impact an organization that values its employees and stands by its brand. I am excited to join forces with your principal leadership figures and colleagues.

Please consider my attached resume for your graphic designer. I am confident that my skill set and drive for outstanding performance align perfectly with your organizational objectives.
